SHOWS STAY STEADY – INDICATE PROMISING CONSUMER INTEREST

The MMIC/COHV series of 7 major consumer shows were not far from their near-record 2009 performance, with only a 4% change in attendance through all 7 shows. In all the cities that shows are held, consumer interest was considered better than expected.

Here's how the show producers saw it:

Darryl Bond - Toronto

"Despite the weather, and the general economic conditions, many exhibitors commented on the high interest and calibre of attendees that were at the show. She Rides Nite was again a success with just over 1,900 women attending. Those retailing on the show floor felt that given the current economic climate and what they've seen over the past few months on their showroom floors that their sales in some cases were better than expected."

Laurie Paetz – Calgary and Edmonton

CALGARY: "We were on par with 2008 and 5% down from our all time record attendance number. It was -30 degree on Thursday and went to 7 degrees for Friday, just in time for show opening. We had a Chinook hit southern Alberta and had sunshine and warm temperatures for the weekend!

Our third annual SHE Rides Nite – we had a great success with prize giveaways all night long. 712 ladies took advantage of the ½ price discount. It was great to see ladies scrambling to enter to win the motorcycle and taking advantage of the numerous show specials that our exhibitors provided for that evening." EDMONTON: "We were above 2009 and just 586 people away from our all time record attendance! Our third annual SHE Rides Nite in Edmonton – again a great success! We had 759 ladies take in the ½ price discount.

We were the first event in the newly renovated and renamed Edmonton Expo Centre."

Nanette Jacques – Vancouver

The show kicked off Thursday night with our first ever Vintage Rider Night. Attendance was up Thursday and showgoers enjoyed meeting our Vintage Rider Panel, including the first ever North American world champion Stevie Baker and his famous tuner, Bob Work.

Friday, our attendance was again up over 2009. On Saturday during the day we broke attendance records for previous years. The beautiful (for a change) weather we had all weekend brought out riders in droves.

Roger Saint-Laurent – Quebec and Montreal

QUEBEC: "Quebec now seems to be stable in terms of historic attendance figures. We had a small 2% decrease in our gate, just shy of 18,000 visitors.

MMIC SHOW REPORT..... con't...

This event remains a strong trend setter in the province and always plays a key role in generating early momentum

Exhibitors told us they were quite satisfied with the results and many reported strong sales on the premises, both for accessories and motorcycles.

Some felt that consumer confidence was back and commented that you could feel the excitement from visitors. The general mood was definitely better than last year and there were more consumers who were very serious about buying motorcycles."

MONTREAL: "This show maintains its role as a high quality event, showcasing the full spectrum of the motorcycle universe, including vintage machines, racing motorcycles and custom bikes.

One exhibitor said it felt like the 2008 show all over again. He stated that consumers were "in your face demanding answers on the product". Again, just as in Quebec City, many felt that consumer confidence was back and are now hoping for a good 2010 season."

Scott Sprague – Atlantic

"The weather cooperated this year with a nice mild spell by our standards and the snow was kept at bay for the duration of the event except for a few flurries here and there. Traffic on all three days of the show was good and it was noted that the Friday of the show had a steadier flow than in years past

The NBATV Seminar stage was well attended and the move of the stage to the show floor from the upstairs restaurant was viewed as positive and gave the stage and the seminars more visibility"

Special recognition should be given to the production teams for all the shows; Canadian National Sportsmen's Shows, ExpoMax, and Master Promotions. Their expertise and dedication maintain the highest standards for MMIC/COHV's showcase shows.

IMAGE FUND SUPPORTS NEW PROJECTS

Each year, funding generated from the MMIC/COHV shows supports projects across Canada. Funding of these projects was announced throughout the recent show series.

TEAM COPS – Constable Corey Adams

Corey is a constable in the Durham Police Services, but on his own initiative, has developed a motorcycle safety message. He attends a wide variety of events to display his track bike, and present his message of training and safety. His audience includes track day riding and riders, public school children, and summer ride nights.

GREAT LAKES POLICE – Matt Hofland

Great Lakes Police Motorcycle Training Association is hosting the Great Lakes Police Motorcycle Training Seminar (GLPMTS) in Barrie, Ontario on August 25 to 28, 2010.

The organizing committee of the GLPMTS is made up of volunteers from various Southern Ontario police services including Toronto, Peel Regional, Waterloo Regional, Durham Regional, York Regional, Chatham-Kent, Ottawa, Windsor, London, R.C.M.P. and the Ontario Provincial Police. In addition to this, the Blue Knights and the Ontario Police College are represented on the committee. The seminar has been in continuous operation since 1999. It moves every year to a new location and is hosted by rotating police agencies.

MCC WOMEN'S RIDER CONGRESS

The Motorcyclists Confederation of Canada is presenting the inaugural International Women Riders Congress and Festival in August, 2010. This riding event was chosen for its focus on a prominent riding group, and its national scope.

MCC RIDE TO WORK

The Ride to Work – Work to Ride Work event is developing a national recognition and participation program that will continue to grow.

CANADIAN INTERNATIONAL MOTORCYCLE HERITAGE MUSEUM FOUNDATION

The Foundation has requested support to develop their induction material to be in consistent editable formats, apply for matching funds from Heritage Canada for translation of their materials, and further develop the Motorcycle Hall of Fame material into a travelling exhibit for Canada's motorcycle shows.

ALBERTA OFF HIGHWAY VEHICLE ASSOCIATION

Their proposal is the promotion of the rider education. With Professional riders and instructors, the opportunity to kick-start a family orientated riding school is well in the works.

BC COALITION OF MOTORCYCLISTS – Adele Tompkins

The B.C. Coalition of Motorcyclists will again promote "May is Motorcycle Awareness Month" in the province of B.C. They promoted "Ride to Vote - Vote to Ride" for Election Day May 12th. This year they managed to obtain 137 bus tails throughout the GVRD and 40 throughout the province. Their "LOOK" bumper sticker had a re-print of 6,000. Their promotion work has province-wide exposure.

Good News for Motorcyclists:

Ontario Premier Dalton McGuinty announced that the Honourable David C. Onley, Lieutenant Governor of Ontario, had prorogued the legislature on March 4, 2010.

With prorogation, Bill 117 died on the order papers and will not be heard at committee and will not move forward in the legislature.
